

Medical vocabulary Relative clauses definitions game IELTS Graduation Unit 4

Choose one of the boxes below with vocab from the listening on page 66/67 and try to explain which one you are thinking of without saying any of the words written there, e.g. "It is something that gives you energy that is made from natural products" for "herbal stimulant" recurring tiredness	furthermore	claim	herbal stimulant extensive research	financial pressure	low levels of oxygen	track down the cause insomnia	body clock	induce	sleep deprivation boost	arise	rise	fundamental question start having hallucinations	on-going	chronic fatigue syndrome	by a process of elimination abnormality	a full recovery	diagnosis/ diagnose	inadequate consumption of	convinced by the theory	high-protein diet	fuel contribute to	carbohydrates	operating at low intensity	subject yourself to red blood cells	whole grains	the building blocks for	optimum performance remedy	debate surrounding its causes

Do the same with this vocabulary from the readings vice	the latest evidence	in reasonable/ modest/ minute amounts	harmful cholesterol conclude that	tranquiliser	pain-relieving effect	struggle to pay for dominated by	a sense of well- being	blame something/ someone for	teenage acne/ spots scientific data	mid-afternoon	blood sugar levels	keep you going the latest wonder drug	intestine	cramp	diarrhoea over-the-counter remedies	self-reliant	a branch of medicine	a physician pill-popping	member of the (general) public	a prescription for	work wonders for neighbourhood pharmacist	pride myself on	health-care consumer	well-informed keep up with medical developments	a doctorate in	treatment of minor complaints	take something into my own hands dissuade someone from	experience dizzy spells	dismiss them as	overwork the world spinning around me	became a curse	a darkened room	eyes tightly shut living hell	lose my balance	do-it-yourself	side effects a healthy appreciation of the limits of	sound advice	sticking to a sensible diet	taking regular exercise refraining from smoking	wonder about the wisdom of	on the road to recovery	in the driver's seat professional paternalism	unquestioned authority	single minded	determine the course of action malpractice litigation	easy access to	give you an illusion of	pharmaceutical companies

Do the same with the medical vocabulary below, but only uses phrases starting with "It's a person/ a place/ a thing/ stuff..."

A physician	A clinic	An X-ray	Blood
A GP	A (doctor's) surgery	A drip	Medicine
A surgeon	Operating theatre	A pill (= A tablet)	Cough syrup
A junior doctor	Ward	A plaster (= A Band Aid)	Gas
A midwife	Delivery room	A crutch	Pain
An organ donor	Waiting room	A wheelchair	Saliva (= Spit)
A blood donor	A chemist's/ pharmacist	An antibiotic	Lotion
A chemist/ pharmacist	A drugstore	A painkiller	Antiseptic
A plastic surgeon	ER	A syringe	Mouthwash
An outpatient	Reception	A sling	Plaque
A patient	X-ray room	A surgical mask	Gauze
A lab assistant	Nursing home	A bandage	Plaster (of Paris)

Which relative pronouns should be used with each of the columns above?