

Needs analysis questions tense review

Put the questions in bold below into the right tenses:

- What do you do? How long you do that? What you do before that?
- you study at the British Council before? How long you study here?
- Why you choose the British Council?
- you study English at university? What you think about those lessons?
- you study at a private language school before? your English improve much? Why/ why not?
- you like English at school? Why/ why not?
- you use or study English this week? If so, how?
- your English improve much in the last twelve months? If so, how has it improved?
- How do you plan to use your English when you reach a higher level?
- you go to many foreign countries? you have any communication problems when you were there?
- What was the first foreign country that you visit? What you think of it?

- What do you do? How long have you been doing that? What did you do before that?
- Have you studied at the British Council before? How long have you been studying here?
- Why did you choose the British Council?
- Did you study English at university? What did you think about those lessons?
- Have you studied at a private language school before? Did your English improve much? Why/ why not?
- Did you like English at school? Why/ why not?
- How have you used or studied English this week? If so, how?
- Has your English improved much in the last twelve months? If so, how has it improved?
- How do you plan to use your English when you have reached a higher level?
- Have you been to many foreign countries? Did you have any communication problems when you were there?
- What was the first foreign country that you visited? What did you think of it?