

Trigger Happy TV Personality Words

As you watch the video, if you see anything that illustrates a personality word in English shout the word out. For example, if you see someone taking a taxi for a very short journey you could shout "Lazy!" The teacher will then stop the film and discuss whether it's the correct word. Your team get one for a correct answer and minus one for a wrong one. The team with the most points at the end of the video win.

There are some suggestions for possible words below, but you may use any personality words you know.
