

FCE Use of English Part Two-style practice of relative clauses
FCE Result Unit 9

Do FCE Handbook Test 2 Use of English Part Two.

What grammar is included in questions 2 and 20? What are the grammar rules?

Put one word into each of the gaps below. As in the exam, don't put options, even if you think more than one word could fit.

Handbook Test 1 Part 1

Nigel is just about to leave on a three-year trip _____ will take him right around the world.

What's more, he plans to make the whole journey using only means of transport _____ are powered by natural energy.

Nigel hopes to pass on to the people _____ he meets the environmental message that lies behind the whole idea.

Handbook Test 1 Part 2

Lake Titicaca, _____ is often known as the 'holy lake', is situated in South America on the border between Bolivia and Peru. The lives of people _____ tools and pottery have been found on its shores have long remained a mystery.

Divers from the expedition have discovered a 200-metre-long, 50-metre-wide building _____ is surrounded by a terrace for crops, a road and a wall. It is thought that the remains are those of a temple _____ was built by the Tihuanacu people _____ lived beside Lake Titicaca before it became a part of the much later Incan empire.

Handbook Test 1 Part Three

The Real Walkers Company offers a selection of small group walking holidays _____ explore some delightful hidden corners of Europe, the Americas and Australasia.

According to the brochure, an enjoyment of walking is often the thing _____ brings together a group of like-minded people _____ share the pleasure of good companionship in attractive surroundings.

Handbook Test 2 Part 3

Last year, Tanzania welcomed about 290,000 visitors, _____ made tourism the third most important source of foreign exchanges.

At the same time, it aims to avoid the 'mass tourism' _____ has been a rather unfortunate development in other areas of similar beauty.

FCE 4 Test 2 Part 2

At that time, it was hard for ordinary working people to find comfortable houses in _____ they could afford to live.

Are there any spaces above where other answers are also possible?

Can any of the gaps be left blank?

Is it possible to remove any of those words by also taking out the auxiliary verbs?

Suggested answers

Handbook Test 1 Part 1

Nigel is just about to leave on a three-year trip which/ that will take him right around the world.

What's more, he plans to make the whole journey using only means of transport (which/ that are) powered by natural energy.

Nigel hopes to pass on to the people (who/ that) he meets the environmental message that lies behind the whole idea.

Handbook Test 1 Part 2

Lake Titicaca, (which is) often known as the 'holy lake', is situated in South America on the border between Bolivia and Peru. The lives of people whose tools and pottery have been found on its shores have long remained a mystery.

Divers from the expedition have discovered a 200-metre-long, 50-metre-wide building (which is/ that is) surrounded by a terrace for crops, a road and a wall. It is thought that the remains are those of a temple (which was/ that was) built by the Tihuanacu people who/ that lived beside Lake Titicaca before it became a part of the much later Incan empire.

Handbook Test 1 Part Three

The Real Walkers Company offers a selection of small group walking holidays which/ that explore some delightful hidden corners of Europe, the Americas and Australasia.

According to the brochure, an enjoyment of walking is often the thing which/ that brings together a group of like-minded people who/ that share the pleasure of good companionship in attractive surroundings.

Handbook Test 2 Part 3

Last year, Tanzania welcomed about 290,000 visitors, which made tourism the third most important source of foreign exchanges.

At the same time, it aims to avoid the 'mass tourism' which/ that has been a rather unfortunate development in other areas of similar beauty.

FCE 4 Test 2 Part 2

At that time, it was hard for ordinary working people to find comfortable houses in which they could afford to live.