

Speculating in FCE Speaking Part Two Use of English Part Two open cloze

Put one word into each of the gaps below.

It seems _____ be some kind of park.

He appears to _____ annoyed.

It looks _____ he's making some kind of craft.

I'm not sure _____ I guess it's her first day at school.

I _____ imagine that they are members of the same family.

Looking at the exotic wildlife, this is obviously _____ in Europe.

After this, they _____ probably go home much happier.

It _____ possibly be kindergarten rather than school.

_____ first impression is that he isn't really enjoying himself.

The concert _____ well be in a park.

I _____ the impression that they have already been travelling for a long time.

It is almost _____ the countryside, because I can't see any buildings at all.

This _____ be a train, because no bus has seats like that.

Actually, I used to be a receptionist, so I know _____ sure that her smile is a fake one.

Photography is a hobby of mine, so I know for _____ fact that it's a very expensive lens.

I expect that _____ will be an argument soon.

I reckon that _____ is raining outside.

I _____ fairly certain it's a British estate agent's.

I'm pretty confident _____ it's the sea, though it could be a lake.

This photo must _____ been taken in Africa.

Underline useful speculating language above and then use that in Speaking Part Two.