

Language learning problems so, such, too and enough So, such, too and enough presentation and practice Complete First Unit 4

What language can you use to talk about problems?

What forms go with “so” and “such”? What is the difference between “so” and “such”?

What forms go with “too” and “not enough”? What is the difference between those forms with nouns and those forms with adjectives?

Write at least one example sentence for each of those forms below, each one talking about a problem with using or learning English:

so

such

too + adjective

too + countable noun

too + uncountable noun

not enough + adjective

not enough + countable noun not enough + uncountable noun
