

First conditional and countable/ uncountable sentence completion activities

Time to Talk Orange Units 17 and 19

Use the sentences below in the way that your teacher tells you to:

- Find related things in common with each other by making sentences which are true for both/ all of you
- Make a sentence and see if your partner can work out if it is true or not
- Complete one sentence, say just the bit that you added, and see if your partner can guess which sentence it is

If my mother asks me to do some housework, I'll/ I won't volunteer to _____.

If there's lots of dirty laundry when I get home, I'll/ I won't _____.

If there are lots of dirty dishes when I get home, I'll/ I won't _____.

If I have no money before the end of this month, I'll/ I won't _____.

If I feel like eating some fruit tomorrow morning, I'll/ I won't _____.

If there aren't any eggs in the fridge when I get home, I'll/ I won't _____.

If the price of butter goes up, I'll/ I won't _____.

If I have no time tomorrow morning, I'll/ I won't _____.

If the government says that coffee is bad for your health, I'll/ I won't _____.

If there are too many people in the next train that I try to take, I'll/ I won't _____.

I'll/ I won't _____ if I have a guest who doesn't eat any meat.

I'll/ I won't _____ if I have a lot of stress.

Ask about any sentences which you couldn't complete, etc.
