

Adjectives to describe last week

New Cutting Edge Intermediate Module 6

Tell your partner something you did last week without giving your opinion.

They will guess what you thought of it using adjectives like those below. Tell them if they are right, and what other adjectives you would use.

Useful language for doing the activity

“You thought it was...”/ “You felt...”

“That’s right”/ “Exactly”

“Actually, I felt.../ I thought it was...”

Possible topics

- A date
- A day trip
- A special treat
- Books, newspapers and magazines
- Conversations
- Eating out
- Films
- Games (e.g. computer games)
- Green spaces
- Housework
- Music
- Radio programmes
- Shopping
- Sports (doing or watching) and exercise News
- Study (worksheets, self study books, lessons or TV programmes)
- TV

Possible adjectives

Great/ Superb/ Fantastic/ Brilliant/ Marvellous/ Amazing/ Terrific
Terrible/ Awful/ Dreadful	So-so/ Not bad/ Alright/ Okay
(Well) worth the money/ Good value/ Cheap	Amusing/ Funny/ Hilarious
Annoying/ Irritating	Beautiful/ Gorgeous/ Stunning
Boring/ Tedious/ Over-long	Charming
Childish/ Juvenile	Clever/ Intelligent/ Smart
Clichéd	Confusing/ Hard to follow
Depressing/ Dark/ Gloomy	Difficult/ Hard
Disappointing	Disgusting/ Revolting
Exciting/ Thrilling	Expensive/ A rip-off
Frightening/ Terrifying/ Scary	Fun/ Entertaining
Hard work	Heart-warming
Interesting/ Fascinating/ Riveting	Luxurious/ Extravagant
Melodramatic	Moving/ Touching
Nothing special	Over-rated
Peaceful/ Calm	Pretentious/ Over-intellectual
Relaxing	Sad/ Tragic
Sentimental	Silly/ Stupid/ Ridiculous
Stressful/ Nerve-wracking	Surprising/ Astonishing
Tasty/ Delicious	Thought-provoking
Tiring/ Exhausting	Unrealistic/ Unbelievable