When your teacher stops you, ask about any you are not sure about, working together as a class to mime and pronounce them each time. Then test each other on the words above:

- say a word and see if your partner can mime it
- mime a word and see if your partner can say it
- say and mime a word and see if your partner can put it into a sentence
- say and mime a word and see if your partner can connect it to a suitable food or drink
