

First contact and further contact dice game

Roll a dice twice, then roleplay a situation matching those two numbers below, with your partner as the other person. Before you start, decide who you both are, what you will talk about, where you are (if it's face to face), what any earlier contact was, etc.

1. Email
2. Phone
3. Teleconference
4. Video conference
5. Face to face
6. Free choice

1. First contact
2. Second contact
3. Have had lots of contact before
4. Haven't contacted each other in (quite) a long time
5. Had contact a very short time before
6. Free choice

When your teacher stops you, ask about any situations above you aren't sure about. Then roleplay some combinations that didn't come up before, this time with your choice of the most useful/ realistic situations for you to practise.
