Prepositions after adjectives sentence completion guessing game dependent prepositions
New Cutting Edge Intermediate Module 6

Complete at least half of the sentences below and then read out only the part you have written in one. Your partner will use grammatical and logical clues to try to work out which sentence your bit comes from, then take turns doing the same.

I used to be interested _____, but I'm not anymore.

I used to be frightened _____, but I'm not anymore.

I don't understand how anyone can be frightened _____.

My boyfriend/ girlfriend/ husband/ wife/ best friend is interested _____, but I'm not.

I am (sometimes/ often/ usually/ always) embarrassed _____.

Many people are/ were excited _____, but not me.

I've recently become interested _____.

I am/ was disappointed _____.

I should be disappointed _____, but actually I'm not surprised.

I think more people should be interested _____.

I think more people should be worried _____.

I'm worried _____ at the moment.

I was worried _____, but in the end it was okay.

If you are depressed _____, you should just go shopping.

I was confused _____, but in the end I understood.

I am still confused _____, even though it has been explained to me.

When your teacher stops you, ask about any sentences above you aren't sure about, working together to make related sentences each time.

Work together to write suitable adjectives in each gap above, including other options too when "by" is possible. Then check as a class.

downloaded from https://tefltastic.com