Adjectives and media vocabulary personalisation game feelings vocabulary/ -ed and -ing adjectives/ arts and media vocabulary
New Cutting Edge Intermediate Modules 6 and 7

Arrange the words below into columns by whether they are positive, negative or neutral.

Do the same by whether they are used with "I feel…" or "It is/ was…"

Take turns choosing one of the cards below or from the pack that your teacher has cut up and given you, then either:

- Make a sentence about yourself that you think your partner might agree with, and then check if that is so
- Make a sentence that you think is true about your partner and see if it is correct

Cards to cut up

boring/ tedious	shocked	confusing/ hard to follow	pleased disappointing	upset	interesting/ fascinating/ riveting	convinced amusing/ funny/ hilarious	annoyed/ irritated	depressing	surprised/ astonished frustrating	tired/ exhausted	worrying	embarrassed superb/ fantastic/ marvellous/ amazing/ terrific	terrible/ awful/ dreadful	scary/ frightening/ terrifying	beautiful/ gorgeous/ stunning relaxed	expensive	disgusted/ revolted	sentimental downloaded from https://tefltastic.com

Try to agree on some of the topics below or predict your partner's opinions (choosing any ones you like):

- being a couch potato at the weekend
- black and white films
- cartoons
- celebrity gossip
- channel hopping
- cop shows
- digital radio
- dubbing
- film soundtrack CDs
- paparazzi
- period movies (= movies set in the past)/ costume dramas
- public radio (e.g. BBC, NPR, ABC and your local equivalents)
- reality shows
- rom coms
- sequels and prequels
- shopping channels
- soap operas
- special effects
- star signs
- star studded movies
- staying in the cinema until the end of the credits
- tabloid newspapers
- terrestrial TV
- trailers
- U and PG-rated films

Discuss your opinions of these three things in your groups or as a class

- pizza
- karaoke
- clubs/ nightclubs/ discos

What do you know or what can you guess about the history of those three things?

downloaded from https://tefltastic.com