

Conditionals review sentence completion first conditional, second conditional, third conditional and the mixed conditional Inside Out Upper Intermediate Unit 3

Instructions for teachers: Maybe after 5- 10 minutes to fill in sentences they can quickly complete, students take turns reading out just the parts they would complete the sentences with and see if their partners can guess which sentence they are talking about. After the game, they could analyse the different forms and what needs to go in each gap.

If it rains this evening, _____

If I'd been born a boy/ girl, _____

If I hadn't got up at all this morning, _____

If I didn't do my homework, _____

If I had been born 100 years ago, _____

If I studied more, _____

If I had got into (more) fights at school, _____

If I had x-ray vision, _____

If I wasn't here. _____

If the economy gets worse, _____

If I was an ant, _____

If I was the most beautiful person in the world, _____

If someone nice tells me that they like me, _____

If I was president of this country, _____

If my investments do well, _____

If I'd started English when I was younger, _____

If I could fly, _____

If I had four arms, _____

If I'd been a child prodigy, _____

If I'd been born with two heads, _____