

House rules speaking with can and have to household vocabulary/ modals of obligation, permission and prohibition

Thinking about topics like those below, do the activity or activities from here that your teacher tells you to:

- Find things in common between the rules of somewhere you have lived and somewhere your partner has lived
- Find differences between the rules of somewhere you have lived and somewhere your partner has
- Find house rules which you have experienced that are stricter than those which your partner has experienced
- Decide what the best house rules would be

Possible house rules topics

- Animals (pets, etc)
- Appearance (clothes, etc)
- Bathroom/ Toilet
- Bed/ Bedroom
- Damage
- Different rooms/ Different places
- Dirt/ Cleaning
- Entering and leaving
- Food and drink (meals, snacks, cooking, etc)
- Footwear (shoes, slippers, etc)
- Housework
- Making decisions
- Money
- Outside
- Plants
- Possessions/ Your things
- Safety
- Shared things/ Shared spaces/ Sharing
- Speaking
- Tidiness
- Times (bedtime, etc)
- Using things/ Borrowing things
- Visitors
- Where things go
- Technology
- Music

Useful phrases for doing the activities

- Do you have to...?/ Can you...?/ Do you have any rules about...?
- How about you?

Discuss rules about technology and then music as a class.