

Guess whose weekend
talking about your week and weekend/ describing people
New Headway Pre-Intermediate U13 warmer

Choose one of the roles below in the way that your teacher tells you (taking a card at random, choosing a card from your hand, closing your eyes and putting your finger down, etc). Answer questions about your weekend until your partner guesses who you are, then take turns doing the same.

You are your father or mother.
You are a university student in Bologna, a city in the north of Italy, studying foreign languages
You are a postal worker in the countryside
You are a typical Australian
You are a typical Canadian
You are a 17 year old professional tennis player who lives in Chicago
You are yourself. Answer the questions with facts about your own weekend.
You are a shopkeeper in a small village shop near Oxford in the UK
You are a teenager in Hollywood, LA
You are a typical Parisian
You are a typical Brazilian
You live in the far north of Sweden

You are an English Premier League footballer
You are a pop star
You are a 7 year old British girl
You are a graduate who hasn't found a job yet
You are an exorcist
You are Steven Spielberg
You are homeless person in London

Discuss the last one as a class:

What do you think the life of a homeless person in London is like?

How do they get money?

What is their history before and since they became homeless?