Second conditional supernatural error correction and discussion second conditional/ cultural training/ supernatural and superstitions Change the questions below to make them into correct second conditional questions. There is one grammatical error in each question. Other grammar may also be correct, but try to stick to second conditional.

1. If someone offer to tell you your future, would you want to know?
2. If there was a holiday in a haunted house available, would you paid money to go there?
3. If your friend tolds you they had seen a ghost, would you believe them?
4. If you heard strange noises at night, would you believing it was a ghost?
5. Would you want to came back as a ghost if you could?
6. Would you communicate with the dead if you could it?
7. What you do if you wanted to make your brother or sister believe there was a ghost in the house?
8. If someone would tell you a ghost story just before you went to sleep, would you have nightmares?
9. If there was a graveyard that everyone said was haunted, will you go into it at midnight for a dare?
10. If you were a ghost, who you would haunt?
11. If you thought your house is haunted, what would you do?
12. If you see a television documentary about ghosts, would you believe it?

Check as a class.

Take turns asking and answering questions above, not looking above when it is your turn to answer.

When your teacher stops you, ask about any which you are not sure how to answer, working together as a class to correct them each time.

Ask each other different second conditional questions about the supernatural and superstitions.

Do the same for just things which some people think are good luck or bad luck.

Brainstorm cultural differences in things which are good and bad luck.

downloaded from https://tefltastic.com