Academic Word List collocations Call My Bluff

Student A
After each AWL collocation are two definitions, the correct one in bold and one false one. Make up one more false one, read the whole thing to your partner, and see if they can choose the correct option. Then take turns doing the same.

Welfare provisions means
a) Giving food to families who can't afford it
b) Providing unemployment benefit etc.
c)

Visual pollution means a)
b) Ugly things that spoil the view
c) Dirt in your eyes

Visible efforts means
a) Attempts whose effects can be seen
b) Trying hard on your make up
c)

----------fold, cover or cut----------

Student B
After each AWL collocation are two definitions, the correct one in bold and one false one. Make up one more false one, read the whole thing to your partner, and see if they can choose the correct option. Then take turns doing the same.

Virtual monopoly means
a) The board game Monopoly played on the internet
b)
c) Very nearly a monopoly

Valid arguments means
a) Have a row with someone for a good reason
b) Logical points
c)

Uniform approach means
a) Treating everyone in the same way
b)
c) A policeman coming towards you

Look at all of the examples above, then do the same with other AWL vocabulary, this time with no help.

downloaded from https://tefltastic.com