FCE Speaking Parts One and Four to practice speculating
FCE Result Unit 8
Work with someone who has the other worksheet. Without looking at their questions, try to use speculating language as you answer them for two minutes. Then take turns doing the same.

Student A
Food
1. In New York they recently tried to make a new law limiting the size of sugary drinks? What effect could such a law have?
2. What kind of breakfast is most popular in your country?
3. Why do people buy packaged meat and vegetables?
4. Why isn't organic food more popular?
5. Food allergies are more and more common. Why do you think that might be so?

Other subjects
6. Are you optimistic about the long-term future of this city?
7. How do your family feel about your choice of job?
8. What are your family doing now?
9. What kinds of jobs do people in your hometown do?
10. What will your next big purchase be?
11. When will you next use English outside the classroom?
12. Why do people choose the area where you live now?

----------fold, cover or cut----------

Student B
Food
13. Is banning advertising of fast foods something that could have much effect?
14. Organic foods are obviously good for the environment, but do they also make much difference to our health?
15. What kinds of food do people your age in your country usually cook?
16. Why do convenience stores not sell healthier food?

Other subjects
17. Is there any chance that robots could do almost all jobs in the future?
18. What is likely to be the next big change in your life?
19. What kinds of people would the area where you live be most and least suitable for?
20. What technology is likely to become more popular in the future?
21. What would foreign tourists most enjoy in your hometown?
22. When might you next go abroad?
23. Why do you think people are interested in the private lives of celebrities?

When your teacher stops you, look at all of the questions and ask about any which you are not sure how to answer, couldn't use speculating language to answer, etc. Then take turns asking each other different questions made from the same underlined question stems.

downloaded from https://tefltastic.com